Plot/Storyline:

It's Harry's second year at Hogwarts, but receives warning from a house elf called Dobby, not to go back. Harry ignores him and goes into a flying car with his friend (Ron Weasley) to get there to Hogwarts! He soon realises that Dobby's warnings are true. The students are turned to stone and the Professors are suggesting they shut down the school for good. That when Harry, Ron and Hermione find out the trouble: Someone is trying to kill Harry. Harry finds a diary, belonging to Tom Riddle (who was not used to be). But it's cursed. The diary tells him about a place called the Chamber of Secrets. Harry and Ron find the Chamber of Secrets hidden in the girls bathroom and goes face to face with Tom Riddle (aka Voldemort) in the chamber. Harry battles a giant basilisk with the magic sword Godric Gryffindor.

Review:

I think this story was quite interesting but thing escalated a bit quick and Harry was more independent in the fight with the basilisk. It's not that bad but not too good either. The story in my head was still as exciting and less clisshangers than the first book so it had a small improvement with that and the brilliant words J.K. Rowling has chose for the entire plot itself. I highly recommend it for 10 or older, a great choice for both children + adults! 360 pages in total!

Age recommendation: 10 years or older (ox)

Next weeks book:
Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban!
